"It's a Woman Thang" Expo, Clothing Swap & Wellness Inside and Out

Saturday, July 17th from 9am -1pm at La Maison de Lucy 2388 Park Ave in Alford, FL turn west off Hwy 231... call 850-579-0138 for directions

How it works: you bring a bag of freshly laundered, undamaged clothes (10 items max) and take what you want FREE from the designated tables (women who do not bring clothes will have to pay $5.00 admission) you may also bring shoes and jewelry to swap and recycle. All left over items will be donated to charity.

- All items must be clean, pressed and folded, dresses on hangers- rule of thumb, if you wouldn't lend it to a friend, don't bring it.
- It is your obligation to find items that you want to take home with you, we do not guarantee you will take anything home or that it will be of equal value to your item or items, just have FUN.

We will provide:
