

TRACEY TAPP, breakout workshop

Speakers

► Managing Energy, Not Time

TRACEY TAPP, MSOD, HUMAN RESOURCE SOLUTIONS

Tracey Tapp, MSOD is a principal at Human Resource Solutions, Inc., a full-service HR consulting firm whose mission is to serve people and organizations in a way that unleashes employee potential, improves organizational performance, and builds lasting relationships. Tapp's area of expertise is organization development with a focus on helping clients improve organizational and personal effectiveness. Tapp previously had a private consulting practice with an emphasis on leadership development. She has designed and conducted multi-module leadership development programs and has coached managers and executives to improve their leadership skills and personal effectiveness. She has also worked with clients to implement team-based work systems that improved quality, morale, safety, and profitability. Tapp holds a Masters Degree in Organization Development from Pepperdine University, and a Bachelors Degree in Political Economy of Industrial Societies from the University of California at Berkeley.

THE 2010 WOMEN'S WORK-LIFE SYMPOSIUM